Putting the *Dream fragments . . . misplaced memories . . . whispers of laughter lost to years gone by . . . secret smiles on young faces, now solemn with age . . .

These were the pieces, the days that formed the jeweled whole;
facets of lives and times spent together for a space, and apart ever after.*

Pieces Together

Putting the pieces together meant assembling futures, forming relationships, exacting perfections. Hopes were shaped and reshaped; puzzles were solved just before the rules were changed forever; but not before we saw the vision of the whole.

SNOW COURT

An enchanted night of magical, fun-filled memories.

This year's Snow Court theme, Winter Spectacular, made couples dream about snowflakes, gingerbread men, packages, presents, and winter fun.

Picture Perfect. Couple Tonia Short and Mark Vinson smile for pictures before heading out the door to enjoy the dance. Many people took time before Snow Court to eat and have pictures taken by their family.

Whispering sweet nothings. Juniors Scott Caldwell and Becky Fennstermaker whisper words of love to each other while dancing. Snow Court was a romantic night for many couples and provided them with time to dance and be together.

Rikki Jennell ("Queen LaQueef") was voted Snow Court Queen of 1995. Her escort, Wes Lucas, watches while SCA President, Kelly Williams, helps with the honors. The 1995 Snow Court King was Chris Huskey.

Smile for the camera! Michael Mertz and out of school guest Anilia Angert grabbed seats beside the decorations before they were all taken. Some students brought friends from other schools to the dance.

Groovin'. Michele Johnson and Adam Jeffers act silly during a slow song. Some people who did not attend Snow Court as couples came with friends so that they could relax and have a good time.

Seniors Eric Shannon and Nikole Toumazatos take pictures in front of the Christmas tree at the Shannon's house. Dressed in Christmas reds and blues, they are ready for a night of fun.

In the wake of the 1994 Los Angeles earthquake and the southern California wildfires of 1993, California experiences more natural disasters in January 1995 when rainstorms cause flooding that kills 11 people and leaves 3,000 others homeless. Flooding is so high in Santa Barbara, fun-seeking teenagers dive off a freeway overpass into 15 feet of water. President Clinton declares 34 counties federal disaster areas.

In 1994, the U.S. registers a one-year population growth of 2.7 million. One-third of the increase is due to immigration, the largest such influx since 1914.

Author and humanities professor, Ralph Ellison, dies at age 80. His 1952 novel, Invisible Man, has been called the most powerful novel written about alienation, identity, and racism in America.

A huge increase in killings by 14- to 24-year-olds raises the nation's homicide rate, while violence blamed on preteens rocks communities nationwide. A boy, 13, is sentenced to life for strangling a four-year-old. In Chicago, an 11-year-old boy kills a 14-year-old girl and is then executed by his own gang. In Washington state a pair of 12-year-olds shoot a migrant worker.

The Flint River overflows, washing coffins out of a Georgia cemetery after torrential rains from tropical storm Alberto flood Georgia and the Florida-Alabama panhandle. Thirty-two people die, 40,000 are temporarily homeless, and 10,000 square miles are underwater, causing $100 million in crop damage.

Former football star O.J. Simpson is charged with the June 12th stabbing death of his ex-wife Nicole and her friend Ronald Goldman, causing a non-stop media avalanche. The sensational case familiarized watchers with spouse abuse, a televised ride in a white Ford Bronco, "Kato" Kaelin, and DNA testing. Simpson faces the jury in January.

A rare white buffalo named Miracle draws crowds to the humble Wisconsin farm where it was born August 20. Native Americans believe the calf is the fulfillment of a Lakota Sioux prophecy. Five hundred years ago, White Buffalo Woman told her people that she would return as a white calf to usher in a new age of harmony between all races of mankind.

The Secret Service considers restricting public access to the White House after a gunman fires 27 rounds at the building's facade in October. In September, a small Cessna airplane crashes on the South Lawn and comes to rest at the base of the White House below President Clinton's bedroom, killing the pilot.

The most popular names for newborns this year are Ashley and Michael.

Young people serve their country by volunteering under a new program called AmeriCorps, where 20,000 people aged 17 and up work with community-based organizations in exchange for $7,500 plus money toward college tuition or loans.

One percent of the nation's 50 million school-age children learn at home as families seek alternatives to public schools. In a handful of high-tech experiments, kids submit homework by modem, download books and artwork from the Internet, and collaborate on academic projects with other children around the world.

A survey of college kids reveals their favorite sources of sugar and caffeine during all-night studying to be: powdered iced tea, peanut butter mixed with marshmallow cream, baby food, ramen noodles, raw cookie dough, and trail mix made from chocolate chips, graham cracker bits, and mini-marshmallows.

Besides recycled clothing like license-plate bustiers, bottle-cap jewelry, trash-bag and duct-tape dresses, fashion trends include the schoolgirl look with thigh-highs, and the grunge-turned-beatnik look of long, straight hair and a goatee.

A lively new cafe society centers around the 5,000 gourmet coffee shops which spring up around the country. To the often young and trendy patrons, the social interaction is just as important as the espresso. Some cafes offer full-time Internet links so patrons can sip and chat with other Internet latte-drinkers.

Yoga, a Hindu system of stretching exercises for well-being, surges in popularity, mostly because the older generation seeks a technique for alleviating stress and finds yoga better than aerobics.

Aerobic boxing, with boxing-style leg and arm work, turns out to be one of the year's hot exercise trends, showing up in workout studios and attracting those who want to work off their aggression by throwing a right and a few jabs.

The hottest merchandise around is Mighty Morphin Power Rangers, so hot Cabbage Patch dolls pale in comparison. Parents criticize Fox's super-violent TV show, but their kids crave Dragon Daggers, Megazords, and the 4-foot, $230 battery-powered car. "Go, go, Power Rangers!"

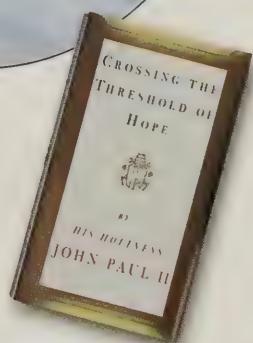

A hot new collectible derives from an old household item. Milk caps, known in some regions as pogs, originally capped the bottles left by the milkman but have now gone funky with colorful printed designs and variations that are traded and used in games.

Although most are forced to settle for Oakley wrap-arounds, stylin' kids, like in-line skaters and urban youth, clamor for Arnet's $80 Ravens with the silver-chrome frames.

The first generation to ignore colas in favor of fruit drinks, today's young people give Snapple popular cult status. The trend breeds juice wars as Snapple imitators like Fruityopia vie for youth market shares and inundate the airwaves with Generation X-type advertising.

Pope John Paul II authors Crossing the Threshold of Hope, a blend of theology, evangelizing and personal reminiscence. It becomes a best-seller in 35 countries.

Ied by brash young skate and surf types, two million snowboarders nationwide discover the joy of swooping down slopes on one board instead of two. No hard boots, no poles, no crossed tips, make it easier than skiing. Since their giant frozen wave is a ski hill, snowboarders annoy old-style skiers who want their slopes left undisturbed by shredders.

We Loved Spending Time Together

Seniors gathered together at numerous events to share their school spirit. One major reason seniors seemed to be spotted everywhere was because of the simple phrase "It's our last year." The reality of graduation and separation hit most seniors early in the school year. In a good way it caused them to treasure the time they shared. A simple school dance or game seemed like something more. "You really view everything much differently when you know it's your last chance to be there or to do it," commented Maurice Milton. Seniors of 1995 hung out and made memories, memories that would never die.

WHAT A YEAR FOR SOME FUN!

Seniors enjoyed countless field trips in the 94-95 school year . . .

The trip to the Barter Theatre was a favorite. They also explored Radford and NRCC on college days. In October they traveled back to Radford to participate in Industry Day where they learned about the industries in their area. Maurice Milton stated that, "any trip is better than a day of school work!"

By: Lindsey Williams

The Hitchhikers! Seniors Raypheal Milton and Wes Lucas tried their best to thumb it back to Giles from Abing-ton, but nobody was crazy enough to pick them up.

Heman!!! Seniors Mike McCoy and Shane Meredith tested each others' strength on the Barter trip.

Lunch Break. Seniors took a break for lunch outside the Barter Theatre.

Barter Theatre. The seniors traveled to Abington, Virginia to see the classic play "To Kill A Mockingbird."

Just as Sweet as They Can Be! Seniors Wes Lucas and Shelley Williams cuddled on the 3 hour long bus trip to Abington.

What a bus ride! Seniors Terry Wayne Simpksons and Chris Davis had a little fun on the bus ride to NRCC Day.

Pump it Up! Heather Wilburn tested her strength on an isotonic machine at Industry Day, while fellow seniors MaryAnne Paupe, Eric Shannon, and Lindsey Williams looked on.

Popcorn Party. Seniors Tomika Saunders, Robbie Simmons, Lindsey Williams, Merinda Steele, Shelby Cole, and Amanda Myers stopped to eat a snack that was given to them at New River Community College.

PUTTING THE FACES TOGETHER.

The seniors shared some childhood pictures with each other. What adorable babies!

Cute Nikole Toumazatos had a ball taking her baths in the kitchen sink.

Donnie Ray Woodyard said, "I know I'm photogenic."

Angie Lytton got an early start on her dancing.

Wasn't Merinda Steele a cutie pie?

Crystal Crigger had such curly locks and a cute grin!

Troy Hazelwood was the "little drummer boy."

"Mom, I had my eyes closed!", cooed Amy Dolinger.

Chris Dunn played in the bathtub but stopped to give a smile.

Robbie Dolinger was a regular little western law man.

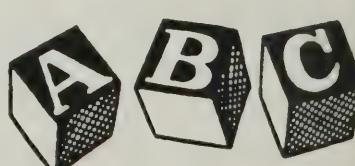

Leigh Hare gave the photographer a big adorable smile.

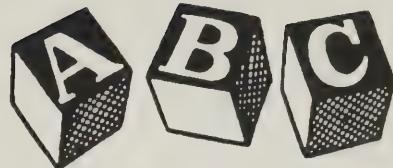

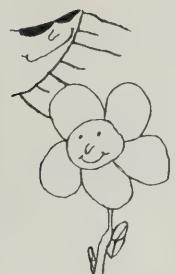

Kari Jennelle still had her beautiful sea green eyes as a senior.

Mary Anne Paupe got a little taste of table food.

Becca Fullen showed off her big eyes!

Rikki Jennell was quite a little camera ham.

Twins Maurice and Raypheal Milton enjoyed "laying back."

Nicole Haskins was still that comical redhead.

Heather Matlock just wanted them to hurry up and take the picture.

Lindsey Williams was the life of the party.

Shelby Cole gave the camera an unforgettable smile.

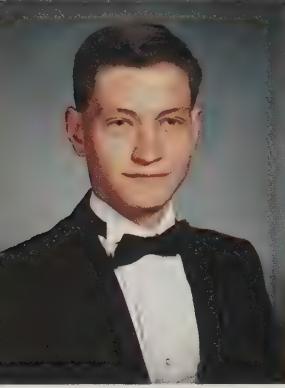

Tonia Short aspired to be successful even as a toddler.

Sara Ashworth was busy pushing her baby dolls around.

YOU MUST HAVE BEEN A BEAUTIFUL BABY ...

AHH . . . A BREAK AT LAST!

Each excruciating school day passed with seniors hard at work, struggling to make those A's. Okay, maybe that was exaggerated. However, a break in the middle of the day was nice. Lunchtime was not only spent eating those nutritious but delicious meals. Some seniors opted for shooting a game of hoops in the gym or playing volleyball. Others headed for the library to catch up on reading or to finish up homework. Not to forget those who used their free time to call their friends or significant other on the pay phone. Some seniors just hung out in the cafeteria and gossiped. Either way lunchtime was appreciated! Pictured above Brady Hypes flipped through a magazine while waiting for friend Virginia Ballard to finish eating the lunch she packed. Brady commented, "I definitely couldn't wait to get out of class and get some grub!"

FREETIME

Things people do to keep their mind off school.

Junior Matt Sarver was living on the edge during his freetime while rock climbing.

Happy New Year! One big happy family spent time together to bring in the New Year.

Time to Sleep! Senior Tonya Short took time to sleep a little more.

Smile! Yeah right, Seniors Maurice Milton, Lindsey Williams, Crystal Collins showed how happy they really were to be at school.

NOT JUST SITTING AROUND

Seniors posed for a picture while on a class trip. Although it may appear they were just "hanging out" they were actually sharing some quality time together before the bus ride home. Which brought us to a question, "What do seniors think of bus rides?" The answer was anonymous, "Hated it!" It was a fact that seniors loved their cars. Marlena Johnson stated her love for her truck by saying, "I'd die without it." Actually seniors needed their cars for numerous things such as transportation to work, sports practices, dance classes, and sometimes just to cruise and explore the roads. Rachael Barnes summed up the issue by simply saying, "When I'm driving I feel free."

DEDICATION

The 1994-1995 Sheild is dedicated to Mr. Larry Hardy. We honor "Larry" for the service and dedication he has given us as students of GHS. Always with a friendly smile, he has been willing to stop anything he is doing to give advice or a helping hand. The Senior Class has grown up with his reassuring presence. We will miss you, Mr. Hardy.

Amanda Scott and Mary Katherine Clark both go for the loose ball.

The Girls J.V. Basketball team got off to a good start, beating Narrows 39-29. They went on to lose only two of their district games, which won them a slot at the district tournament. There they played Auburn and lost a hard fight, 42-37. The J.V. team played one of their best seasons ever.

The eighth grade team played against unbeatable odds. Although they played many close games, they couldn't quite manage to grip a win. They endured to earn experience which will be valuable to a successful J.V. team.

Jennifer Brotherton and Melissa Cumbee try to defend a Shawnee lay-up.

Ready to play, the J.V. team listen to Coach Brown for the game plan.

All it takes is a little bit of skill. Junior Andrew Wagner chips it in outside of the hole to meet par. Andrew was the only member of the Spartan golf team to attend the state match.

Quiet please. Junior David McCall puts a lot of thought and concentration into a critical putt during a match against Radford. Giles beat the Bobcats 236 to 313.

"Hey, where did it go?" Spartan golfer, Eddie O'Dell, squints his eyes against the sun to follow the path of the ball.

Keep your eye on the ball. Senior Eric Shannon practices his swing before the district tournament against Floyd County, Radford, and Shawsville. Giles won the district title with a score of 334.

Check out that arm!!! Senior Troy Hazelwood hits from the fairway to the green in hopes of par during practice.

The team showed up for practice in early August ready to do their best. New coach Greg Brown, along with returning coaches Jerry Huffman, and Jack Ellison took a group of kids and tried to install a winning attitude. The JV team ended their season with a winning record of 7-1. The Spartans only allowed 70 points to be scored and outscored their opponents 270 points, and an average of 31 points a game.

The eighth grade team , with new experience and a new attitude, tried to improve on last year's record. It was hard work, but they were determined. The Spartans succeeded and ended their season with a record of 3 - 4.

GOOD JOB SPARTANS!

Tic-Tac-Toe Two seasons in a row

The Spartans go undefeated for two straight seasons

The 1994 football season as a continuation of recent tradition. Traditionally, the Spartans have been the best team in the Mountain Empire District.

But during this year's pre-season things were looking mighty gloomy. With key injuries and disciplinary actions, the move to a much stronger Three Rivers District, the graduation of a class of state-championship-winning seniors, and a pre-season scrimmage loss, the Spartans were facing a tremendous amount of adversity.

The season started with a game against the perennial group AA powerhouse, Blacksburg Indians. The Spartans shook off the pre-season's problems and won in a big way, 30-14.

After a second week 32-21 offensive battle ending in a victory over Floyd County, the team traveled to Narrows for the big annual rivalry.

An hour before the game, the stadium was packed, parking lots were full, and the fans were ready. The teams took the field and the war was on. Raypheal Milton opened the scoring on a sweep around the end. The Spartans scored once more before the half to make the score 14-0. The teams traded scores into the fourth quarter but the Spartans scored twice to make the final score 30-14.

The "Good Guys" then went on a four game winning streak, including an impressive victory over group AA Christiansburg, a team with the leading rusher in the Timesland poll. The Spartan "D" held Christiansburg "bad boy" Andre Beasley to a mere 47 yard rushing.

Two victories after the Christiansburg game, the Spartans were 7-0 and had to face new rival James Monroe at Giles.

Superstar Spartan Raypheal Milton had a sub-par day. He was held to a modest 99 yards rushing and 29 carries. He still scored an awesome four touchdowns and passed for another to running back Reggie Hoston. Anthony Myers had a career day with five catches for 113 yards. James Monroe never got closer than when they were down 14-6 in the second quarter. The Mavericks were held to a trifling 29 yards rushing.

The Spartans went on to win their final two games impressively, with a big 45-8 win at Grayson and a 55-12 thrashing of Shawsville at home.

The first week of the playoffs found GHS pitted against the Radford Bobcat. Even after a homecoming loss, (36-21), they came into Giles overconfident. In the first half we took some of the wind out of Radford's sails as we went up 11-0. The Bobcats took our bag of tricks and mounted a second half comeback. Going into the 4th quarter the score was 17-0, but Radford roared back scoring 14 unanswered points. The Spartans withstood the scare to win 17-14.

Spartan Maurice Milton gets prepared to lock horns with the Christiansburg Blue Demons. The Spartans went on to crush Christiansburg 38-22.

The offense comes off the field like an army of warriors after yet another successful Spartan drive.

PUTTING THE SPIRIT TOGETHER

The Varsity Cheerleaders put the schools spirit together with a lot of hard work and determination. Practice started in the summer and continued until the basketball season ended. Each girl put forth 100% in all she did, so when it came time for fun, they all had a blast! Through all the ups and downs, the girls still managed to make it all snap.

WHO WOULD HAVE EVER KNOWN THEY WEREN'T EVEN CHEERLEADERS? Jen and Jes were a great addition to the squad.

The Spartans ended their season at regionals with a loss to George Wythe, 5 to 4. The team, however, had quite a few victories over the season. They pulled together to grab an impressive win over Christiansburg. Goals were made by Seniors Eric Shannon, and Shane Meredith, and sophomore Robbie Claytor. Overall the season was successful, the team had many supporters and teamwork was something they really depended on. Coach was Neil Schmidt and assistant coach was Randall Roe. The soccer team is ready to be even more victorious next season.

J.V. & VARSITY BASEBALL

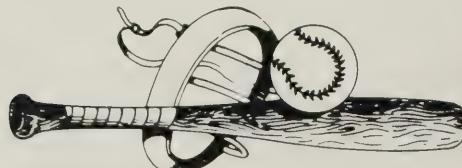

complete successful seasons, while Varsity claims the TRD title

Once again the Giles High Varsity Baseball team completed a successful season. The team started off with a 4-1 victory over Christiansburg. From there they ran off three straight victories over Narrows, Craig, and Ft. Chiswell. After being upset by Galax, the team showed great depth in a close 6-5 triumph over Narrows to sweep both regular season games from the Waves. The Spartans managed to take six out of the following seven games, including two big games with Radford and Floyd. This was a result of clutch pitching from Josh Stephens and great batting from Raypheal Milton, Kevin Minnick, and Jarod Dalton. Coming into the second game with Auburn, the Spartans led the district and had a chance to clinch the TRD title. The team came alive which resulted in a final score of Auburn-2, Spartans 11, to seize the regular season title.

Throughout the baseball season teamwork and perseverance helped put the Spartans on top. Elected to this season's first team All-District were Josh Stephens and Raypheal Milton. Second team included Raypheal Milton and Kevin Minnick. Matt Tawney and Mike McCoy were selected for third team. Receiving Honors were Jarod Dalton, Neal Mustard, and Ben Brown.

GHS Puts Together OKLAHOMA!

Rodgers and Hammerstein's production of OKLAHOMA! was presented in the Giles High School Auditorium the weekend of March 10, 11, and 12. Under the direction of Mrs. Laura McGraw, Mr. Larry Marion, and with the help of many other people, OKLAHOMA! became the smash hit of the year.

OKLAHOMA!, which was not only a musical, but a comedy and a drama, began with Curly (Chris Dunn) trying to sweep his sweetheart Laurey (Sara Ashworth) off of her feet. There was only one problem — Jud (Marshall Young) wanted Laurey to be his. At the same time, Ado Annie (Tonia Short) just couldn't make up her mind between the unattainable Ali Hakim (Yancey Strickler), or the chivalrous Will (Jamie Clark). But even though Ado Annie's Pa (Adam Jeffers) wanted her to marry Ali Hakim, in the end she married Will.

The Grand Finale was the marriage of Curly and Laurey. Everyone was celebrating and singing except for Jud, who was later accidentally killed in a scramble with Curly.

OKLAHOMA! and its cast deserved two thumbs up for their performance. Anyone who missed it should just kick themselves.

Keep Away From My Daughter! Adam Jeffers, playing the part of Ado Annie's Pa, tells Ali Hakim that he isn't welcome to have his daughter.

"Poor Jud is Dead." Chris Dunn, whose role was curly, pronounces his "sympathy" if his rival, Jud (Marshall Young), should die.

"I Cain't Say No!" Tonia Short, who plays the part of the affectionate, yet flirtatious Ado Annie, talks about how she can't resist a man who talks pretty to her.

FFA, FHA, FBLA

The Future Farmers of America (FFA) were very active in the 1994-95 school year. They raised money for the club by conducting their annual citrus fruit sale, which was a major success. The club participated in many contests. These included forestry contests, livestock judging, horticulture contests, agriculture mechanics, horse judging, public speaking, parliamentary procedure, tractor driving, and dairy judging. The group held a chapter picnic and a federation picnic and participated in state leadership conferences and the state convention. Ms. Donna Frye and Mr. Bryan Strader were the club sponsors.

FHA was the place to be during this school year. Each club meeting was something to look forward to. The meetings featured such guest speakers as Gary ice and Mark Skidmore who spoke about missing persons and showed members how a real investigation is held. Other speakers included Mike Harold, who discussed self defense techniques, and a representative from the Women's Resource Center, who taught the club members about date rape. The Future Homemakers entered a float in the annual homecoming parade. They contributed to local organizations by making treat baskets for residents of the McArthur House, and collecting toys and personal items for the Women's Resource Center. The FHA Club sponsor was Ms. Janice Gautier.

This year the FBLA club members, though numbered few, were very hard-working and determined. Each member put forth great effort in each project throughout the school year. The annual food drive proved to be a greatly appreciated success, as well as their other contributions. In March of '95, five club members traveled to New River Community College to participate in regional competitions. Freddie Merix placed second in her chosen category. The club sponsor for the '94-95 school year was Ms. Beth Roe.

FBLA sponsor, Beth Roe packs a box full of goodies to help a family on Thanksgiving.

Working together . . . These FFA members gather around their sponsor, Mr. Bryan Strader, to discuss club projects.

MAKE WAY

The SAE (Students Active in Education) club achieved great things during the 1994-5 school year. Each month they honored a "Teacher of the Month", for whom the members made a poster to hang on the teacher's classroom door. SAE also held a party for the TMR students.

This year the Art Club helped the student body in several ways. They helped with decorations for Homecoming and Snow Court.

They also used some of their fund raising money to improve this school, as well as to sponsor their trip to Washington.

"Oklahoma" was the '95 musical produced by the Drama Club. All members worked very hard to make it a success. Whether they were working on props, selling tickets or acting, each member made their contributions to the production.

PROM 1995

Romance, Elegance, Fun . . . Prom 95 was extremely successful. The theme was Before I Let You Go by Black Street. The royal couple was Jason Cook and Melissa Clark. Junior prince and princess were John King and Keeli Whetzel. Some attendants opted to go to the after prom party at Pearisburg Community Center. Here they Velcro Wall jumped, Bouncy Boxed, and Human Bowled. Prom 1995 was an unforgettable event.

By: Lindsey Williams

FREEZE FRAME Senior girls stopped to stun onlookers.

Prince and Princess. John King and Keeli Whetzel were elected by attendants.

Couples. Senior Marlena Johnson and Jason Clark smile pretty at their table.

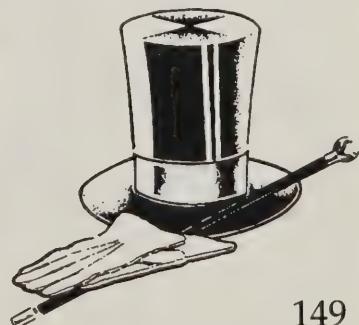

Vogue. Senior Chris Huskey and date Junior Billie Jean Kirk enjoyed having their pictures made.

The Dance. The dance floor was always full when a slow song was playing.

So sweet. Senior Angie Lytton hugged her "punkin" Junior Josh Stephens.

BEFORE I LET YOU GO

ROYALTY. King and Queen Jason Cook and Melissa Clark.

Posing Perfect. Seniors Mary Anne Paupe and Brian Jones enjoyed an evening breeze on her porch.

Looking Good. Junior Michael Mertz decorates for prom.

Cowboy Chris. Senior Chris Husky got a little tired at the all night after prom party.

Best Couple. Senior vote for best couple Nikole Toumazatos and Eric Shannon pose at prom.

Girls, Girls. Seniors Amanda Myers and Heather Martin wait for their dates.

Yo, sweetness. Senior Lindsey Williams and boyfriend sophomore Robbie Claytor kiss before prom.

Handprints

— Leigh Karr
— Crystal Crigger

*Tiny handprints in red, yellow, and blue,
Haphazardly arranged on a wall.
Each one as different as the person within,
With something very special about them all.*

*The journey we began, to build our forevers,
Became a lengthy, vigorous, and wholesome endeavor.
The pieces of our lives, we tried to shape and mold,
As we each came together to make a whole.*

*We changed a little as we got older,
And those handprints somehow got bigger.
How we all would grow together,
We never could have figured.*

*We never thought we'd see the day,
When all our childhoods would drift away.
Now after 18 years of laughter and tears,
We must take a stand, and face our fears.*

*What we're doing today will be tomorrow's recollection,
Relics we'll save to add to our collection.
Although many of us will grow apart,
We'll cherish these friendships always in our hearts.*

*As we each say good-bye, and scatter our ties,
Remember, that we together, are the class of '95.
And when the last missing piece is in place,
We'll leave with memories to carry throughout our days.*

*And in years to come, we ask of you one thing,
Take out a sheet of paper,
Scatter some paint,
Make a handprint,
And think.*

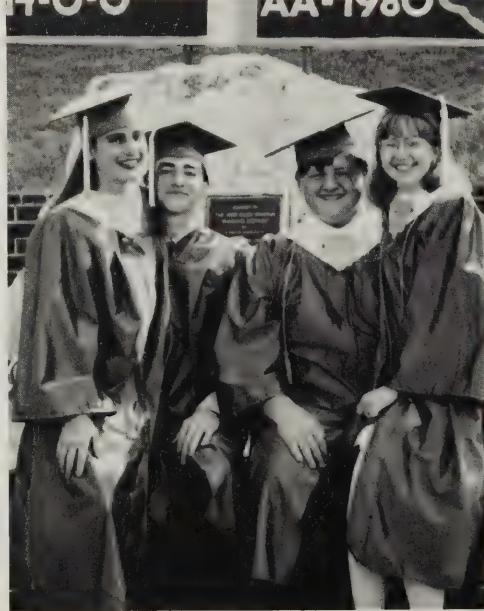

The Final Piece

After graduation these seniors stand together on the field before beginning "life after high school," on their separate paths.

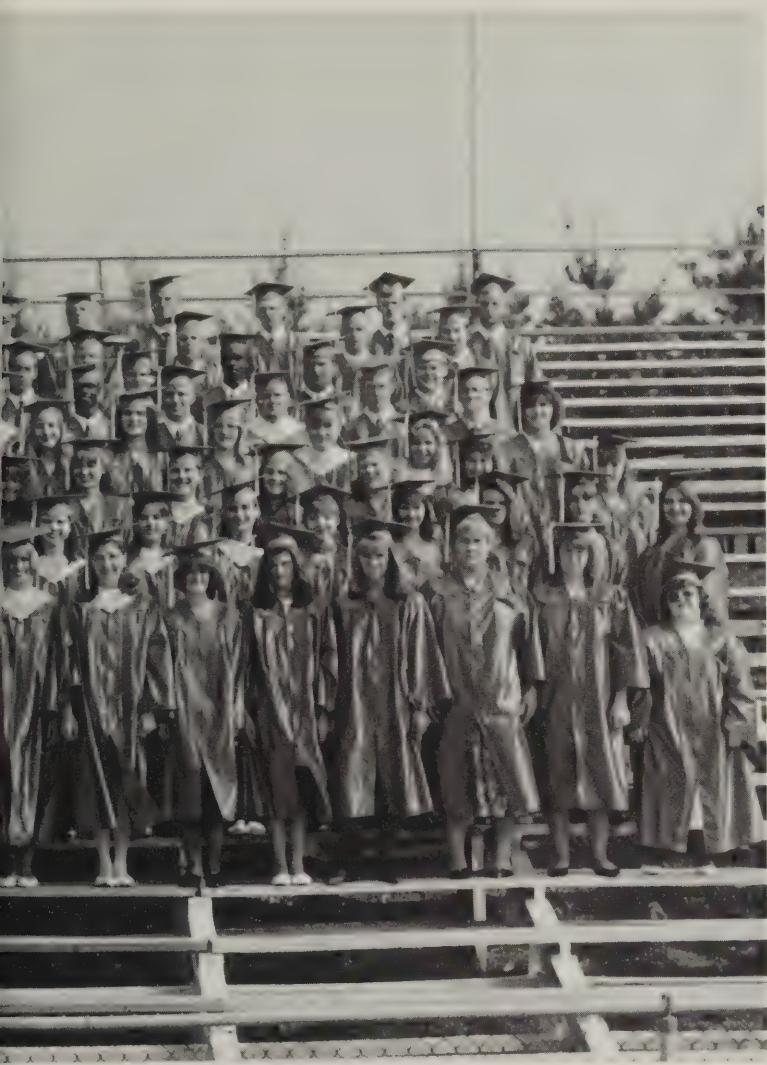

Maurice Milton finds himself amidst graduates Lindsey Williams and Angie Lytton as they share a tearful, yet joyful good-bye.

Senior couple Eric Shannon and Nikole Toumazotos pose quickly together with Chris Dunn and Sara Ashworth before the graduation ceremony.

With smiles as bright as the future, these senior gals prepare for graduation 1995.

Hanging out after graduation, Eddie O'Dell and Troy Hazelwood get a little hyped about the night ahead.

Promising to keep in touch, seniors Katrina Gardner and Rachel Barnes sit together by the Spartan Rock on graduation day.

Over the years we have all grown together as we each learned about growing up. Friendships were made and many laughs were shared. We left our mark as we made our way through all the obstacles that were faced. There was no holding back, for the class of nineteen hundred and ninety-five was bound to rise. With much determination and pride we struggled through the homework, the teachers, and the parents. From learning to ride a bike to understanding and dealing with relationships, the pieces of growing up were carefully placed together. As graduation grew nearer and our time became shorter, we thought back to the experiences that brought us where we are today.

We now stand here united, together for the last time, and try to remember the past as we wonder about the future. No matter what that may bring, always remember that we are all a part of the class of '95 and we together are the best. As the final piece is placed into our hands, one puzzle is completed and another has just begun.

— Leigh Hare

Many seniors spent as much time together as possible before graduation, then went their separate ways to face life from a different point of view.
